

100 Mentors in 100 Days

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metropolitan Detroit (BBBSMD) launched our 100 Mentors in 100 Days campaign, on January 1, 2010. This campaign is dedicated to recruiting an abundance of mentors to help young people achieve their full potential within our community. The service we provide is a life changing experience for a matched Big (mentor) and Little (mentee).

Our outreach movement, 100 Mentors in 100 Days, will encourage individuals, specifically males; young and old to learn more about why mentoring is so important to our youth and our communities. We want you to learn how taking 1% of your time can make a 100% difference in a life of a child and how you don't have to change your life to change theirs.
